The dishes sit dirty in the sink
My other work goes undone
My friends wait to hear from me
My energy for life is none

I wish that time could stop
I have some catching up to do
I find my mind on other things Remembering and mourning you

In grief there is a reality
That no one can prevent
The world moves on without us
It doesn't need our consent

But when I am finally ready To join the world once more
I know that you are with me
Just different than before

Grief

I give myself and others permission to grieve at their own pace, recognizing that all people are different in their journey of healing.
I give myself and others grace, acceptance, compassion and kindness on their grieving journey.
